

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Virginia Co-Op Credit Union Expands with New Building in Chisholm, MN

Chisholm, MN – Dec 5, 2025, Virginia Co-Op Credit Union proudly announces the purchase of a new building in Chisholm, Minnesota, marking a major step in the credit union's ongoing growth and dedication to serving the Iron Range community.

The new facility, located at 11 NW 1st Ave, Chisholm, MN 55719, will provide space for all types of member services. This investment underscores Virginia Co-Op Credit Union's commitment to improving accessibility and delivering personalized financial solutions to its growing membership base.

"We have been rooted in the Iron Range since 1937 and understand the cyclical nature of the region's economy," said Donald Rausch, President and CEO of Virginia Co-Op Credit Union. "This expansion is a commitment to the people in the community, and we look forward to building lasting relationships here."

The new Chisholm branch will feature modern amenities, including a drive-thru and an exterior ATM, along with digital banking services. Construction and renovation plans are underway, with an anticipated opening in mid-2026.

In addition to the expansion, members of Virginia Co-Op Credit Union will have the opportunity to vote on a proposed name change. The proposed change reflects the credit union's broader regional presence and continued evolution while maintaining its cooperative roots and member-first philosophy.

About Virginia Co-Op Credit Union

Founded in 1937 with cooperative principles, Virginia Co-Op Credit Union is a member-owned financial institution dedicated to providing trusted, affordable financial services to individuals and businesses across Minnesota's Iron Range. With a focus on community, integrity, and innovation, the credit union continues to grow while maintaining its commitment to local values and personalized service.

Media Contact:

Donald Rausch

CEO/President

Virginia Co-Op Credit Union

(218)741-5644 ext 1001

donaldr@vccu.org

vccu.org